3. Financial Report

The Treasurer's Report was deferred.

4. New Business

a. Tom Tom Summit & Festival Presentation – Mr. Paul Beyer, Executive Director of the Tom Tom Foundation presented information on the Tom Tom Summit and Festival. This year, the festival has broadened its focus to small cities across the country and draws 4,000 each year. Last year, there was representation from 300 cities and had a $2.5 million annual economic impact. Several major initiatives were spearheaded and noted that some newly formed organizations such as CvilleBioHub and Charlottesville Renewable Energy Alliance were formed as a result of the festival. Mr. Johnson stated he will work with Mr. Beyer to develop a strategy and report back to the Authority with a recommendation on how the EDA and the County can support next year's festival.

b. Director's Report – The Director's Report was deferred.

c. Broadway Blueprint – Mr. Johnson and Mr. Newberry provided the Authority with an update on the progress of the Broadway Blueprint Study. The Woolen Mills/WillowTree project has served as a catalyst for spurring activity in the Broadway Corridor. Mr. Ray stated that the appropriate role of the government is to help steer the process to get a more quality product. Mr. Gentry agreed and noted that a well-planned project could create a synergy between the County and the City and encouraged staff to be thoughtful of every step of the process. Mr. Atkinson stated this 45 acre site is the largest contiguous light industrial area in the County which is even more reason to help guide the process. Mr. Newberry shared the next steps for the study.

- d. Recognition of Elton Oliver – Mr. Gentry announced that upon completion of his term, Elton Oliver will be stepping down from the Authority. Mr. Oliver was then recognized for 18 years of service on the Economic Development Authority. Mr. Gentry motioned and read A Resolution Recognizing Elton J. Oliver and noted it will be presented at the January 15, 2020 Board of Supervisors Meeting. The motion was seconded by Mr. Atkinson.

MOTION: The motion passed unanimously

- e. Closed Session – Mr. Atkinson a read the following Closed Meeting Motion:
